MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Assistant to the DCI

FROM:

Dean of Conferences

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address the Interdirectorate Seminar (IDS)

1. The Center for the Study of Intelligence (CSI) would like to invite the Director to meet with the Interdirectorate Seminar (IDS) on Tuesday, 8 May 1984, [redacted]

2. The IDS, established in 1979, provides a bimonthly forum outside MAG channels wherein middle- to senior-level officers drawn from across the Agency share their experiences and insights on Agency-wide issues. As you will surmise from the attached list of members, IDS participants are responsible officers of some considerable sophistication.

3. In view of the DCI's quest for excellence, meeting with the IDS would surely generate further discussion, and could be an appropriate forum in which to explore Agency goals and principles. We think it would be a unique opportunity for all.

4. The group meets [redacted] between 4:30 and 5:00 p.m., hears from the speaker for an hour or so, breaks for cocktails and dinner at 6:00 p.m. and resumes at 8:00 p.m. The discussion lasts as long as interest and civility prevail. No notes are taken; everything said is off the record.

5. I do hope Mr. Casey will be able to meet with us.
